Ikebana (生け花)
Japanese Flower Arrangement
Background of Ikebana

- "Ikebana" is derived from ikeru (生ける keep alive, arrange flowers, living") and hana (花, "flower")
- More than 600 years of practice
- Stems from the Japanese’ love for nature
- Total of 5 main styles

Kuge  Nagi re  Shoka / Seika  Jiyuka  Modernism
6 Principles of Ikebana

静

眼

线

人

球
ZIG ZAG
By Nakaji Yuki
The series revolves around the lives of a group of students living in Kazami Dormitory of Seifu Private School in Japan. It mainly focuses on a boy named Takaaki Asakura (nicknamed "Taiyou") and his affection for flowers.